First Aid. More school boards are requiring a designated First Aid trained individual at all events. As a precaution, ADSA would ask all hosts to ensure that such a person can be identified at our speech and debate activities.

Peanut Allergies. Hosts of tournaments should be aware that some students have peanut allergies. We would like to request that no peanuts or nuts are brought to the tournaments.

2009
Apr. 7-14	Lithuania – World Individual Debate & Public Speaking Championships. This tournament comprises four events: parliamentary debate, impromptu speaking, interpretive reading, and either persuasive speaking or after-dinner speaking. Students compete in two preliminary rounds for each event. Half of Team Canada will be chosen at the Winnipeg CanWest Competition and the other half will be chosen at the 2010 IISPSC Competition.
Apr. 7	Calgary Public – Classes resume after Spring Break
Apr. 12	Classes resume for Calgary Catholic
Apr. 17	Edmonton & Calgary – Law Day – Mock Trials. Students are given a scenario that outlines an alleged criminal offence and they act out the roles of crown attorneys, defense lawyers, witnesses and the accused. This exercise demonstrates how Canadian law not only guarantees rights but also imposes responsibilities on society members. Participants learn about the criminal code, the rules of evidence and the Charter of Rights and Freedoms. The tournament also allows students to develop public speaking skills, build self-confidence and learn how to effectively organize and deliver oral and written presentations. The competition takes place in the Law Courts Buildings in both Edmonton and Calgary. Edmonton Invitation & Registration.
Apr. 22 to 26	Victoria – Canadian National High School Debate Championships (John Baty). Each Provincial and Territorial Association is invited to send up to eight debaters. Competitors must be in grade 9, 10, 11, 12, 13 or, in the case of Quebec, first year CEGEP. Provinces/territories may select their delegates in any way that they wish to. Alberta will send 5 teams to the Sr. Nationals. They will be the Top 2 Sr.Open teams that do not graduate this year plus top 2 Sr. Beginner teams plus top Sr. Bilingual team at the Debate Provincials which took place at Strathcona-Tweedsmuir School, Calgary on March 13, 2010.
